Practice tip

The tune's character is in the 3/4 lilt and the tonic-octave climb. Count "ONE-two-three" aloud while you play; the downbeat is the spine. The phrase that reaches up to A5 ("to lay aside His crown for my soul") is the emotional centre — give the climb a slight swell.

If you're playing this on a NAF and it feels too cheery in pentatonic mode, slow it down further (Q:1/4=72) and lean on the long notes — that recovers some of the dorian gravity.
